

Surveying

KFW is a multi-disciplinary firm that specialises in Project Management, Surveying, Civil Engineering, Structural Engineering, Sewer & Water Design, Sewer & Water Co-ordination and Urban Development.

The firm commenced operation in 1949 as Consulting Surveyors and by 1989 had diversified into Consulting Engineering and Urban Development Services. KFW has successfully grown to be the largest multi-disciplinary consultancy in the Illawarra.

Cadastral land survey

- Title boundary identification and marking
- Identification surveys and preparation of legal survey certificates for property sale and transfer
- Urban and rural land subdivisions
- Strata subdivisions
- Community Title subdivisions
- Easement surveys
- Preparation of s.88B documentation for formal creation of easements and restrictions
- Document preparation for Transfer Granting Easements and Restrictions
- Department of Lands NSW enquiries, including electronic lodgement of survey documentation for plan registration (Eplan)

Engineering Surveys

- Civil works, construction and monitoring
- Building construction

Mapping surveys

- Topographic surveys (detail and contour surveys)
- Photogrammetric control

Geodetic surveys

- Three dimensional control measurement of all surfaces
- Global Positioning System techniques (GPS)

Property Council of Australia Surveys

- Building Leasehold Surveys

Survey Drafting

- Preparation of 2 and 3 dimensional drawing files
- Legal cadastral survey plans and documentation
- Onsite photography to demonstrate survey aspect

Our surveyors are well versed on current legislation, namely the Surveying Act 2002 and the Surveying Regulation 2006, and acquire the ability to apply these standards with a range of techniques. Our team is constantly adapting to technological advances in survey equipment and software and the ever-changing nature of client demands.

